

Sher Shah College, Sasaram
Programme Outcomes

After successful completion of “Three Year Degree Program” in History a student should be able to:

1. Understand basic information about different aspects of the past to students.
2. Understand how historians research, frame and argue about past and present.
3. The outcome is to provide students with a sense of how interconnected our present is with the past, how learning about the past provides them with the skills to understand the present.
4. To facilitate this understanding, our courses, class room instruction and assignments give students the ability to think and reach their own conclusions. Our class discussions, written assignments, class room presentations would help students to build their own ideas.
5. The course aims at intellectual development of the pupil and also to develop a sense of active citizenship, making responsible political choices. To encourage them to debate in matters of public concern and to critically think.

Programme Specific Outcomes Part I B. A Hons.

Student are able to:

1. understand basics of Indian History and will be introduced to the Medieval history of Europe.
2. understand how historians have looked at the past and research.
3. understand use of different types of primary sources.
4. be able to write project reports and assignments and critically analysis.

Course Outcome/Student Learning Outcome:

After Successful completion of course, Paper 1 History of India (from the Earliest time to 550 A.D, students are able to:

1. Students will be familiarized with Ancient Indian history
2. understand the regional history of Bihar and its historical importance
3. Identify different types of sources.
4. Identify different perspective and actively process information about past.

Course Outcome/Student Learning Outcome:

After successful completion of course, Paper II History of Medieval Europe students are able to:

- a) Study about other parts of the world and European history.
- b) Understand how state and structures are evolved in past.
- c) Develop a keen sense of political and cultural history.
- d) Familiarize with various cultural movements in Medieval Europe.

Programme Specific Outcomes Part II B. A Hons.

Students are able to:

1. Understand various cultural movements in medieval Indian history.
2. Understand various types of sources and will be able to use.
3. Indian subcontinent is given prime importance but European history is given.

Course Outcome/Student Learning Outcome:

After successful completion of course, Paper III: History of Early Medieval India from 6th -13th C. A.D.

Course Outcome/Student Learning Outcome: After successful completion of course,

Paper IV: History of Modern Europe (1788-1945) students are able to:

Paper V: History of India (1206-1764)

PART III - Paper VI History of India (1765-1950)

Paper I: History of West Asia and China and Japan – (19th century to 20th century)

Hons. Part III (Subsidiary) World History (1789-1945)

At the end of the three year course the student will be able to assess and examine various themes of Indian, Medieval and Modern Indian history. Along with that student will be able to understand themes of medieval Europe and modern Europe as well as West Asia countries like China and Japan.